McKinkley duties on tobacco raised Connecticut's production of the weed from 11,516,750 pounds in 1891 to 16,625,100 pounds in 1892.

OUR DEMOCRATIC LEGISLATURE.
A writer in The Frankfort Capital estimates that the absentees of the Legislature—members who have not been at their post of duty—have already drawn nearly $140,000 from the State Treasury, for which the taxpayers have received nothing in return. Still, those who do attend fail or refuse to adopt measures to bring the absentees to a sense of their duty.

HELL AND HARRISON.
The election of Charles Harrison as Mayor of Chicago by the Democrats was the subject of discussion in the Conference of the M. E. Church at Newark, N. J. "Bishop and Brethren," Rev. C. H. Payne said, "the devil is celebrating a great victory in Chicago. Hell is having a jubilee to-day in honor of the election of a Mayor who will turn the Sabbath into a day of amusement."

THE OLD FLAG, BUT NO APPROPRIATION.
Frankfort Capital.—Consideration of the bill to furnish every schoolhouse in Kentucky with a National American flag was postponed yesterday in the House on account of the absence of a member who desires to be heard on the subject. The bill will become a law if it is to be defeated that provision be made for the flags to be renewed sufficiently often to avoid the spectacle presented by the ragged emblem now floating from the dome of the State Capitol.

A STUPID ORDER.
Courier-Journal.—It took only twelve hours for the boys on the row to knock out Postmaster General Bissell and his stupid order to suppress the names of the appointments of Fourth-class Postmasters. How he ever came to think of issuing such an undemocratic edict it is hard to conjecture. Hereafter he should keep in line and touch with the people and not allow himself to get into such ridiculous scrapes as to work discredit upon his management and make his administration of the office odious.

HOW PROTECTION RUINS.
The wealthiest Nation on earth, according to The Engineering and Mining Journal, is the United States, with its assessed valuation of $47,475,000,000. Great Britain, with $43,600,000,000, ranks next, and then France, with $40,300,000,000. Germany follows with $31,600,000,000, and next in rank is Russia, with $21,715,000,000. Then Austria, with $18,065,000,000. Then Italy, with $17,755,000,000. Spain's assessed valuation is but $7,965,000,000, though once recognized as the richest Nation on the globe. The Netherlands are assessed at $4,935,000,000. Belgium at $4,080,000,000. Sweden, $3,475,000,000. Canada, $3,390,000,000. Mexico, $3,150,000,000. Australia, $2,950,000,000. HUNGRY KENTUCKIANS.
Washington Correspondent C. J.—"I notice," said a well-known Democrat whose position is such that his remarks are authoritative, "that a Georgian recently laid great stress upon the fact that there are 240 Federal officers in Georgia. There are but 300 Federal officers from that state in Washington. This brings up an interesting question as to where do most of the officers in Washington hail from. My business brings me in contact with a great many of them, and I have observed their attack upon the Capital with a deal of interest. From the result of my knowledge, I have seen more Kentuckians in Washington for offices than from any other state. They were among the very first to arrive and they have not ceased coming. There are probably twenty Kentuckians in town who want office to one from New York and thirty to one from Connecticut and New Jersey."

A GREATER number of trees are now growing in New Zealand than there were in the early part of the century. Very much of the pasture area and rough land formerly used in cultivation has been allowed to grow up, first to bushes, then to shrubs, finally to trees. Never before in New Zealand for many years could firewood be purchased so cheap on the stump as at present.

THERE are lots of places in our country where waters could be so managed as to get the full effect of irrigation. A farm of fifty acres properly irrigated would be worth more than one of 200 acres without it.

If you want to add another branch to your poultry business, raise some turkeys; forty-five ready for market Thanksgiving time will pay better than the same number of capons. You can market turkeys in the fall, but capons must be kept until February or March.

He has been located in Knoxville, Tenn., for the year, and will leave in a day or two for his new charge at Moberry, Mo.

ONWARD AND UPWARD.

THE receipts of the Mayville Postoffice Over $15,000 a Year.

THEY CONFESS.

All of Abbie Oliver's Murderers Break Down.
There Will Likely Be a Resort to Mob Violence at Morganfield, Ky.

William Omer, J. L. Tate, Frank Holt, George Delaney, W. H. Holt, A. Thompson and a stranger the guilty parties—Great Excitement Created.

STURGEON, Ky., April 10.—Excitement in the Oliver murder is increased by the confession of Lewis Land, a young man who, up to Thursday noon, was not suspected of being connected with the affair. Land made his confession to Police Judge Berry. He says William Omer, J. L. Tate, Frank Holt, Geo. Delaney, W. H. Holt, A. Thompson and a stranger whose name he does not know are the guilty parties. He says that on that night all the persons named, on horses and armed with shotguns, halted the carriage containing Mr. and Mrs.
Oliver. Henry Delaney and the girl Abbie Oliver, that Frank Holt, George Delaney and the stranger opened the fire and that immediately Henry Delaney, who had been forced to marry the girl, and who was in the carriage, called out: "Don't shoot me boys!" After several shots had been fired, and the carriage had passed on, the delinquents returned and Henry Delaney, who had jumped out of the carriage, and joined the party, was offered a gun by Frank Holt. He went to go and complete the terrible work of murder, but that he (Land) advised that the affair stop; that Henry Delaney said: "I refused to let one preacher marry my Oliver said if you don't marry my daughter, I will kill you and give myself up." I put it off as long as I could, thinking the boys would come up.

This confession is sworn to, and creates great excitement. Land, Alex Thompson, and W. H. Holt have been taken to the Morganfield jail. A lynching is expected.

The following telegram was received here Saturday morning from Morganfield:

"I am all right. The parties who are guilty have confessed and are in the hands of the law."
Geo. P. Henry.

This fully clears Mr. Henry, coming from the guilty parties immediately after the confession of Lewis Land. Very few believed Mr. Henry guilty, as he had no personal interest in the matter at all.
The Olivera were all connected with the Delaney family, except two, who were new friends of the Holts. There will likely be a resort to mob violence, as excitement is at a fever heat.

FOREST FIRES

Cause Destruction at McKnight, Ky.—Two Women Missing.

McKINLEY, Ky., April 10.—A terrible fire has been blowing here since early carried by the gale more than three quarters of a mile.

Hundreds of dollars worth of fence was burned in sight of the town, and the Reports from Liberty, the county sible to save the town. At a late hour flames were approaching with threatening rapidity and great excitement prevailed.

Philadelphia, April 10.—Work is being carried on night and day at Oregon's ship yards. In order that the American crusade, New York, the fastest warship appear in line at the great naval review near New York bay, the secretary of the Navy Department is particularly anxious that the cruiser shall participate in the event in order that the naval representatives of other countries may be impressed with the idea of what this country is accomplishing in the way of naval armament.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 10.—Major ing $10,000, which was squandered at feiture of office. He pleaded guilty and and Coach a Failure.

St. John's, N. F., April 10.—The New foundland seal fishery is now admitted to be a total failure for this season, some even think that over 90 per cent of the entire fleet was expected to yield 90,000 seals, which is one-fourth

COUNTERFEITERS.

Philadelphia Lads Taken in the Act—Has Been Sent to Jail.

PHILADELPHIA, April 10.—Two counterfeiting den, run by Russians, have been unearthed in this city. The police first raided the den of the Russian of Samuel Garfield, 1642 South street, and in the cellar found the proprietor, his son Nathan and two other lads, Jacob Uroos and Harry Sincars, hard at work in the manufacture of bogus pennies.

The place was well equipped and 1,200 finished pennies, 1,000 partly finished and 1,000 ready for a chemical process to brighten them was also discovered.

Then John Levant was taken into custody and confessed that he was a member of the "gang" and had a shop at 1305 Lancaster street. The latter place also had a complete counterfeiting outfit, including a die for twenty-five-cent pieces.

DYING OF FRIGHT.

How a Sudden Accusation of Theft Affected a Dry Goods Clerk.

New York, April 10.—Charles Kraus, an employee of Henry Bateman's dry goods house, is dying at his home in Brooklyn. The doctors are of the opinion that he is dying of fright. When accused of theft on Thursday evening he confessed his guilt, put his hand to his left side and fell in a swoon on the floor. Since then he has not recovered consciousness. He had been stealing small sums of money for months and the suddenness of the accusation surprised him. It was at first thought that he was shamming and he was placed on the sofa, but when the usual restoratives were applied and failed to bring him to an ambulance was sent for and Surgeon Dixon attended the patient. Two hours he worked over him without success.

RAISED TO AN EMBASSY.

Why Mr. Easton's Name Goes Again to the Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The president sent the following nominations to the senate Saturday: James H. Easton, of Louisiana, to be ambassador extraordinary and plenipotentiary to France.

August Belmont & Co. to be special financial agents of the navy department at London, vice Seligman Bros.

The nomination of Mr. Easton, who has already been confirmed as minister to France, is simply to raise the grade of the mission to an embassy to meet the corresponding change made by the French government in the case of its representative at Washington.

THROUGH A BRIDGE.

A Fireman Killed on the Moon—Heavy Loss of Property.

DELPHI, Ind., April 10.—A terrific rain storm here Friday night weakened the bridge over Willard run, this side of Bossville. The engine of the northbound L. N. & C. train went through the bridge, killing Fireman O'Brien of Lafayette. His body is still under the engine. Engineer Brooks escaped with slight injuries. Loss to the company will be very heavy. The coaches and sleepers which remained on the track were sent to Chicago via London and the Clover Leaf route, the L. E. & W. bridge also being down.

Why Rev. Tupper Must Go.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 10.—Rev. Tullius C. Tupper, rector of St. Philip's Episcopal church, has resigned and his resignation has been accepted. Dr.
Tupper came here nearly two years ago. His performing a marriage ceremony in Kent, contrary to the express orders of Bishop Nelson, is said to have precipitated the trouble.

Murdered by a Burglar.

NORFOLK, Va., April 10.—Mr. John Dollard, a member of the Norfolk city council, and a wealthy merchant, was shot in the throat by a burglar who was attempting to enter the rear door of his store. He died within ten minutes.
The man escaped, pursued by a policeman and citizens who fired at him five times without effect. He returned their fire with great deliberation.

Fire in the Timber.

TRINIDAD, O., April 10.—A great deal of alarm is being manifested by the citizens of Abus over the fire that is raging in the woods all around that place. There has been no rain in this community for some time, and everything is dry as tinder. Fire broke out Friday morning, and has been burning ever since. Houses are being consumed and several houses are in imminent danger of being licked up.

A Tramp's Terrible Crime.

RICHMOND, Va., April 10.—A mysterious murder was committed near Chester, twelve miles south of here. The victim, whose identity is not known, was a well-dressed young man, with his left arm missing. The murderer is supposed to have been a tramp, in whose company the young man was seen.

Can't Remember.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Allen T. Lawrence, of Illinois, a post office inspector in the money order service, has resigned. Arthur A. Robinson, of Indiana, a special examiner in the pension of-the building now occupying the site of the original office.

Obtain All Rights in Oregon.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 10.—Advice from all the grain growing districts of Oregon and Washington show that the harvest will be largely increased over last year. The prospect of a heavy crop is everywhere better. The season about three weeks later than the average.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 10.—J. G. Mattingly & Sons Distillery Co. has been compelled to shut down, owing to com-
